Unit 18 Lecturer Workload Policy
Physiological Science

The workload for Unit 18 Lecturers teaching in courses taught through the department of Physiological Science (PHYS SCI subject area) is 6 courses, with no more than 2 courses for 100% time allowable in any one academic quarter.

All courses are counted as one (1) course with the following exceptions. One course is compensated at 50% pay for the quarter.

Exceptions:
1) Course 111L counts as one-third of a course per lab section taught. Each section is compensated at 16.67% pay for the quarter.
2) Courses with two (2) or fewer units are counted as one-half course each. Half courses are compensated at 25% pay for the quarter.
3) Significant course revision or course development during the academic year can equal up to .85 course per quarter.
